

BRIEF LOCALS.

SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1898.

Ice cold drinks at G. H. Coffin's. tf

The Peoples' store is the place to save money. Try us.

Mrs. T. D. Lardner of Quincy, Ill., is a guest of the New Bank Hotel.

The Peoples' store. Come and examine our goods and prices.

Fresh strawberries, raspberries and blackberries at G. H. Coffin's. 24tf

THE SUN for one year and a series of 12 numbers of Uncle Sam's Navy for $3.

E. S. Gosney has moved his office to the second floor of the new postoffice building.

If you want the best mackerel in the market or the freshest cheese, go to G. H. Coffin. 24tf

For sale at a bargain, a No. 8 Charter Oak cook stove in good condition. Apply to G. N. Baty. 22tf

People who have houses or furnished or unfurnished rooms to rent should advertise the same in the SUN.

Mrs. H. H. Lestor and Hudson P. Hibbard, of Los Angeles, are tourists registered at the New Bank Hotel.

Go to Davison & Cronin's for everything first-class in harness and saddles. Up to date. You know the place. 24tf

Otto Kaiser, Andrew Smith and H. C. Jagger of Los Angeles, were among Wednesday's arrivals at the New Bank Hotel.

A tree fell upon a tree-trimmer named Crosier at Greenlaw's mill last Monday, badly crushing him, but he will recover.

Those desiring their houses or stores fitted with pipe and fixtures, can have the work done promptly and accurately by W. F. Friedlein. 19 tf.

The Peoples' store has the largest stock of dry goods, fancy gents furnishing goods, hosiery, millinery, etc., ever opened in Flagstaff. Call and see us.

Geo. W. Sturtevant, Jr., of Chicago, who has made our city a proposition for the construction of water works, arrived in the city from the southern portion of the territory Wednesday.

The extended telegraphic report received daily by the SUN and which is being paid for by contributions of citizens, is posted as received on the SUN bulletin board and is read with the greatest interest by all.

P. R. Weatherford, clerk for Babbitt Bros., in a friendly scuffle with Jno. Mundersbach, Tuesday had his leg broken at the ankle. It will be many days before he will be able to move about without the aid of crutches.

During Saturday's shower a bolt of lightning struck a tall pine tree near the rear of the Hick's lodging house, tearing off a strip some twenty-five feet in length and sending smaller pieces flying in all directions.

A company of northern New Mexico volunteers, comprising more than one hundred men, passed through Tuesday morning on their way to Whipple Barracks. The cars bearing the soldier boys were decorated with red, white and blue and with streamers containing patriotic words.

The following report from Flagstaff was published in bulletin of the Weather Bureau of July 12: Everything in fine condition since the rain. Crops good and water plentiful. Temperature, highest 81, lowest 48. Rainfall 1.20 inches.—C. P. Wilson.

Funston for printing that pleases.